

Enjoy your first year FREE when you join UNL's Emeriti and Retirees Association

Why join?

Enjoy fellowship among members

Members gather at informal monthly Coffee House Chats and the International Issues Discussion Group September through May.

Learn through presentations and discussions of current issues

University of Nebraska President Ted Carter speaks on current programs and issues within the university.

Stay connected to UNL by special opportunities for tours and talks

After a tour of HuskerVision headquarters in West Stadium, ERA members hear more about the program as they stand on the field in Memorial Stadium.

Who is eligible to join?

- Persons holding emeritus status from UNL
- UNL professional, office, and service personnel who are 55 years or older and qualify for retirement benefits
- Persons holding emeritus status from another university or college and now living in Nebraska
- Any spouse or partner of a retired or deceased member

What about dues?

The first year is free. Thereafter, the dues are $25 per year.

How do I join?

Just go to emeriti-retirees.unl.edu and click on the "Join Now" button. OR, scan the QR code below:

Yes, it's that simple! Because the first year is free, all you need to do is sign up online. By letting us know of your desire to join and providing your email address, we'll send monthly invitations to luncheons, socials and tours.

For more information

For information on programs and activities, visit emeriti-retirees.unl.edu

"The monthly luncheons are a great opportunity to eat with others and hear great programs. Spouses, partners, and friends are welcome at luncheon and other ERA events - Linda Boeckner

*"I love Coffee House Chat events. It gives me a chance to meet new people or chat with old friends."
- Julie Johnson*

