

Spring 2016 Water Seminar Series

Wednesday, 3:30 – 4:30pm

Hardin Hall First Floor Auditorium

Northeast Corner of N. 33rd & Holdrege Sts., UNL East Campus, Lincoln

- Jan. 13 Martha Rhoades, Research Manager, University of Nebraska-Lincoln
Host: Matteo D'Alessio
Title: "Non-Hodgkin Lymphoma, Birth Defects and Water Quality in Nebraska: The Chicken or the Egg?"
- Jan. 27 Alan Kolok, Professor, University of Nebraska at Omaha and University of Nebraska Medical Center
Host: Daniel Snow
Title: Water and Health: Issues and Opportunities
- Feb. 10 WILLIAMS MEMORIAL LECTURE:
Elizabeth VanWormer, Assistant Professor of Practice, University of Nebraska-Lincoln
Host: Martha Rhoades
Title: Health at the Human-Animal-Environment Interface: Tracing Pathogens from Land to Sea
- Feb. 24 Norman Uphoff, Professor, Cornell University
Host: Chittaranjan Ray
Title: Improving Food Production for Health in a Water-Constrained World: Opportunities Deriving from Agroecological Knowledge and Experience
- March 9 KREMER MEMORIAL LECTURE:
Sandra Banack, Senior Scientist at the Institute for Ethnomedicine
Host: Daniel Snow AND Kyle Hoagland
Title: Toxic Water: Should we be Concerned?
- March 23 No Seminar (UNL 2016 Spring Break)
- March 30 Mary Ward, Senior Investigator in the Occupational and Environmental Epidemiology Branch in the Division of Cancer Epidemiology and Genetics (DCEG) at the National Cancer Institute
Host: Martha Rhoades
Title: Drinking Water Nitrate and Cancer: What do we Know and What Research is Needed?
- April 13 Karrie Weber, Assistant Professor, University of Nebraska-Lincoln
Host: Daniel Snow
Title: Mobilization of Uranium in Groundwater
- April 27 Final Class Meets (NO SEMINAR SPEAKER per Pat Shea)

For more information, please contact 402-472-3305

